12th November 1888

At 6 pm 12th George Hutchinson of the Victoria Home Commercial Street came to this station and made the following statement

About 2 Ave 9th I was coming by Thru Street, Commercial Street, and just before I got to Flower and Dean Street, I met the murdered woman Kelly, and she said to me Hutchinson will you lend me sixpence. I said I cant I have spent all my money going down to Ransom she said gods morning I must go and find some money. she went away towards Thru Street a man coming in the opposite direction to Kelly, tapped her on the shoulder and said something to her they both burst out laughing. I heard her say alright to him, and the man said you will be alright, for what I have told you. he then placed his right hand across her shoulder. He also had a kind of a small parcel in his left hand, with a kind of a strap round it. I stood against the lamp of the <sup>Victoria</sup> Pitt Public House, and watched him. They both then came past me and the man he downed his head, with his hat over his eyes. I stopped down and look him in the face. He looked at me stern. They both went into Dorset Street & followed them. They both stood at the corner of the Court for about 3 minutes. He said something to her. she said alright my dear come along if you will be comfortable. He then placed his arm on her shoulder and gave her a kiss. She said she had lost her handkerchief. he then pulled his handkerchief a red one out and gave it to her. they both then went up the Court together. I then went to the Court to see if I could see them but could not I stood there for almost three quarters of an hour. to see if they came out they did not so I went away
